Are you a Cakeionista?

Do deliciously decadent cakes and treats turn you on just as much as a fabulous pair of Manolo Blahnik shoes? If so, keep reading. No self-proclaimed Cakeionista would dare to devour anything less beautiful and less original than these gorgeous treats! Rich Schineller

Although she came from a family made up of bakery experts, Cake Zone owner Alla Levin grew up believing the fashion industry was her calling. While a young girl, her walls were covered with torn-out pictures of high-fashion designs and original sketches of wedding dresses, fancy hats and sparkle. She attended design school in Europe and in the states, eventually continuing her studies at the Fashion Institute of Technology in Manhattan. Lucrative gigs at several European design studios followed, yet as the years passed, something seemed to be missing. It wasn't until she started channeling her childhood that she realized her true calling wasn't clothing, it was cakes!

Like something straight off a fashion week runway, these dessert designs are breathtaking. Accessorized to the max and filled to the brim with imagination, trendy looks and Haute couture, The Cake Zone cakes and treats are nothing short of spectacular. Their slogan is “If you can dream it, we can make it.” They certainly seem to be walking the walk! A quick peek inside the studio will reveal cakes designed as slot machines, underwater kingdoms, fashionista and bags, and yes, wedding cakes that look like they were made for royalty! Ring-ring.... Is that Prince William on the other line?

And now, as if it couldn't get any more delicious, The Cake Zone now features FULL dessert tables. Alla Levin takes it to the next level, accessorizing the main feature with scrumptious accompaniments like color-coordinated brownies, candies, cupcakes and assorted pastries. This idea is perfect for the holidays! Embrace the idea and your guests will be raving all the way into the next season. Of course, the most difficult task for any Cakeionista is deciding just which one to pick. Go ahead, try them all. This kind of deliciousness never goes out of style.
